To postpone the Regular Town of Urbana Board Meeting until Tuesday, September 22, 2009 at 7:00pm. Four members of the Board said they hadn't had enough time to review their meeting information in order to conclude any business.

Supervisor Lanphere tried to discuss the matter and said that the majority of the information was nothing that needed to be acted on but only discussed. He said that many members of community came out for the meeting and the board should stay for them. The Board could meet later to vote on any business that needed action. Councilman Presley demanded an immediate vote.

The meeting ended at 7:12pm with no motion. Supervisor Lanphere asked for a motion but the Board members got up and walked out.
